

How Do I Become A Private Space Explorer?

featuring
Anousheh Ansari
SEAS MS '92

Friday September 28, 2007
3:00 p.m. - 4:30 p.m.

Jack Morton Auditorium // 805 21st Street

Anousheh Ansari, SEAS MS '92, will speak about her life and career as an engineer and business woman, and how that led to an eight-day expedition to the International Space Station as a private space explorer.

For more information, email gwcc@gwu.edu.

This event is presented by the GW Alumni Association, the Career Center, Class Council, and the School of Engineering and Applied Science.