

CS-338 Special Topics in Distributed Systems

Summer (Camp) 2007

Collaboration Technologies

The most popular and on demand technology now a days

Duration: middle May to first week of July

Twice a week, once at school the other is lab practice by yourself.

S. Rotenstreich

shmuel@gwu.edu

Academic Center #T720A

(202)994-6919

Topics Covered & Format

We will briefly cover the foundations for human collaboration on work projects, social interaction, services, etc. We then will spend the rest of the time demonstrating by running various collaboration tools (there are many).

The course is in the form of a workshop where students have to do practical work. There are no exams and the format is flexible.
Tuesdays 6-8pm, Tompkins 211 (a computer room)

