

School of Engineering and Applied Science
Student Peer Advisory Network (SEASSPAN) Mentor and Ambassador Eligibility Requirements

1. Must be enrolled in The George Washington University School of Engineering and Applied Science (SEAS) as a full-time rising sophomore, junior, or senior-level student
 - a. Students may only serve as SEASSPAN mentors or ambassadors for a maximum of three years
2. Must be in good judicial standing with the University as deemed by the Office of Student Rights & Responsibilities and SEAS Dean's Office
 - a. Persons on disciplinary probation that ends prior to the application deadline are eligible to apply to SEASSPAN or Undergraduate Ambassadors
 - b. Persons who have had a disciplinary record, but it has been administratively expunged are eligible to apply for SEASSPAN or Undergraduate Ambassadors
 - c. Persons who have a disciplinary record, but are not currently on disciplinary probation but have been found in violation of the Code of Academic Integrity and Code of Student Conduct are eligible to apply for SEASSPAN or Undergraduate Ambassadors, but may be subjected to additional interviews by the Dean's Office
 - d. For SEASSPAN Mentors, persons whose judicial standing is pending are eligible to apply and eligible for the 'Waitlist'
 - i. Those applications with pending judicial status will be revisited and reviewed at the end of the academic year
 1. If still pending at the end of May, those persons will automatically be considered ineligible to serve on SEASSPAN
 2. If resolved by the end of May and not on probation, those persons will be eligible but a spot on SEASSPAN is not guaranteed
 - e. Persons who are placed on probation or receive more severe sanctions after the application deadline or at any time after becoming a SEASSPAN mentor or Undergraduate Ambassadors can be immediately dismissed from SEASSPAN or Undergraduate Ambassadors as deemed by the Dean's Office
3. Must have and maintain a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.8 and be in good academic standing with the University as deemed by the SEAS Office of Student Services and Advising and SEAS Dean's Office
 - a. Persons on academic probation that ends prior to the application deadline are eligible to apply to SEASSPAN or Undergraduate Ambassadors
 - b. Persons who go on probation after the application deadline or at any time after becoming a SEASSPAN mentor or Undergraduate Ambassador can be immediately dismissed from SEASSPAN or Undergraduate Ambassadors as deemed by the Dean's Office
 - c. Persons whose cumulative GPA drops below 2.8 at any time after becoming a SEASSPAN mentor or Undergraduate Ambassador can be immediately dismissed from SEASSPAN or Undergraduate Ambassadors as deemed by the Dean's Office
4. Must abide by the GW Code of Student Conduct, Code of Academic Integrity, and SEASSPAN Code of Conduct Agreement
 - a. Persons found in violation of any of the above agreements can be immediately dismissed from SEASSPAN or Undergraduate Ambassadors as deemed by the Dean's Office
5. Must be in good financial standing with the University as deemed by the Office of Student Financial Assistance.